

Justice Education in Schools Symposium
Thursday May 8th

11:30 – 12:00 Registration (Flavelle House)

12:00 – 1:00 Networking lunch (Solarium – Falconer Hall)
provided by Central Technical School's Culinary Arts program

Larry Banack, Chair of the Board of Trustees of The Law Foundation of Ontario (LFO) will speak about the LFO's support of justice education and youth outreach initiatives and funding opportunities.

1:00 – 3:30 Post-secondary Roundtable Discussion (Solarium – Falconer Hall)

Representatives of several Canadian law schools, undergraduate programs, and community colleges are invited to share ideas and challenges in regards to their respective youth outreach initiatives.

Topics to be discussed include:

- Mentoring programs
- Classroom workshops
- Job shadowing programs
- Working with Aboriginal students
- Different models of program delivery
- Student leadership
- Law firm participation
- Faculty participation

Friday, May 9th

8:30 – 9:00 Registration (Flavelle House)

9:00 Welcome (Flavelle House)

9:15 – 10:15 Democracy and the Justice Sector – moving beyond substantive law in discussions with students

Key topics: Civics courses
Critical thinking
Careers in the justice sector

10:30 – 12:00 Challenges to Justice Education in schools
Demonstration
Key Topics: Curriculum expectations
Knowledge base of teachers
Assessment

12:00 – 1:00 Lunch
provided by Central Technical School's Culinary Arts program

1:00 – 1:45 Experiential justice education activities

1:45 - 2:00 Hard to Reach youth

2:00 – 3:30 Strategies and discussion on Outreach to:
Aboriginal youth
Newcomers to Canada
At-risk youth