

JUSTICE EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM MAY 13 & 14, 2010

JUSTICE EDUCATION IN SCHOOLS

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FACULTY OF LAW
78 QUEENS PARK CIRCLE

PROGRAM AGENDA

TIME	TITLE	DESCRIPTION
DAY 1
8:30 – 9:00	Registration
9:00 – 10:00	Welcome/ Building Legal Capability	Knowledge, Skills and Attitude: presenters will discuss a balanced approach to developing justice education programs
10:00 – 10:50	Talking Back: Hearing Youth Perspectives on Justice Education Programs	Youth program participants will share their expertise regarding the dos and don'ts of effective programming and youth engagement.
10:50 -11:00	Stretch and Refresh Break
11:00 – 12:00	Towards Change: Responding to Community Needs Through Justice Education Programming	Community partners discuss the utility, effect and challenges of justice education programming.
12:00 – 1:30	Speed Networking Lunch	Share that contact info! Develop new relationships to foster new partnerships.
1:30 – 3:00	Discussing Innovation: Examining New Ideas in Program Models	Learn about programming models that “step outside the box” and hear the perspectives of unconventional program partners.
3:00 – 4:00	Measuring Impact	Knowledge is power; the more you know the more you grow; however cliché, the reality is evaluation is key to developing successful programming – learn about different evaluation methods and tools here.
DAY 2
8:30 – 9:00	Day 2 Registration
9:00 – 10:00	Court Time...	Justice education programming that brings together the justice sector and youth is mutually beneficial. This panel examines how and why courts participate.
10:00 – 11:00	Beyond Academics: Examining Institutional Value	Hear different perspectives of students involved in program delivery and learn about the added value these opportunities bring to their post-secondary experience.
11:00 – 11:15	Snack and Stretch Break
11:15 – 12:15	Classroom and Beyond: Educators Highlight Their Experiences With Justice Education Programming	Educators discuss the benefits, challenges and impact of justice education in schools.
12:15 – 1:15	Lunch & Learn	Fuel up for the last lap while enjoying a program demonstration
1:15 – 2:15	Keynote	Sandra Bacchus, Director to the Assistant Deputy Attorney General shares her motivation for staying involved in justice education programming.
2:15 – 3:00	Focusing on Program Delivery: Tips for Implementation	Getting down to the nitty gritty of programming, exploring funding, lesson plan design, curriculum links and facilitation skills
3:00 – 3:15	Wrap up	