

Second Annual Aboriginal Youth Justice Conference

9:30 – 10:00

Registration and morning snack

10:00 – 10:15

Welcome ceremony and smudge: Bennett Lecture Hall

Mark Griger, Elder, University of Toronto First Nations House

10:15 – 11:15

Keynote address: Cindy Blackstock, First Nations Child & Family Caring Society of Canada. "Is this our Canada?"

11:15 – 11:20

Welcome from the Law School Dean Mayo Moran

11:20 – 12:00

Student Life Panel

Panel members:

Ajay Winterburn, University of Toronto Law School

Lindy Kinoshameg University of Toronto Bachelor of Physical Education & Health

Andrew Manitowabi, University of Western Ontario, Criminology & First Nations Studies

Dustin Jacko, Cambrian College Police Foundations Program

Mireille Giroux, University of Toronto Law School

Tracy Jacko – First Nations House

12:00 – 12:30

Lunch – Rowell Room

Presented by the Faculty of Law & First Nations
House at the University of Toronto

March 26, 2010, 9:30 A.M. – 3:30 P.M.

Faculty of Law, 78 Queen's Park, Toronto

12:30 – 2:30

Participatory Mock Trial & Mock Community Justice Diversion Hearing, *Moot Court Room

Mock trial participants:

Judge: The Honourable Mr. Justice Todd Ducharme, Superior Court of Justice

Defense Counsel: Katherine Hensel, Stockwoods LLP Barristers

Assistant Crown Attorney: Sylvia Seo, Ontario Justice Education Network

Court Clerk: Mireille Giroux, University of Toronto Aboriginal Law Students Association (ALSA)

Witnesses: ALSA members Meegis Parkin, Shannon McDunnough, Amanda Carling and Eric Chamney

Mock Community Justice Diversion Hearing participants:

Anonghous Kitchikike - Aboriginal Legal Services of Toronto Youth Community Council Case Worker

Bear Charles - Community Council Member

2:30 – 3:15

Careers in the Justice System and Mock Hearing Q & A Session, facilitated by Marisha Roman, Aboriginal Initiatives Counsel, Law Society of Upper Canada

3:15 – 3:30 Closing comments